

OPEN CALL #WE PRODUCE

Applications by 15 January 2025 to wepresent@lichthof-theater.de

WE PRODUCE is the Hamburg LICHTHOF Theatre's research grant for emerging artists who have already taken part in WE PRESENT. WE PRESENT is the LICHTHOF Theatre's platform for emerging artists and will take place as an annual festival from 2025.

WE PRODUCE enables individual artists or an emerging collective to work freely as artists. During the residency, new collaborations can be tested, aesthetic approaches consolidated, an individual formal language developed, a repertoire of content developed or production structures created over a period of ca. 2 months in summer 2025. The funding creates space for the organic development of artistic visions and supports the development of the skills required to realise them.

WE PRODUCE is an open-ended research funding programme. Parts of the research will be presented as part of the WE PRESENT Festival 2026 - the form of presentation is up to you.

What you get

- 7500 € fee for you and employees
- Process presentation as part of the WE PRESENT Festival 2026
- 2 process-accompanying talks with Lisa Florentine Schmalz and Anne Pretzsch
